

The 2023 All Arts Auction & Art Show!

A FOSL Community Art Auction Supporting the Shepherdstown Public Library Entry Form

Artists of all ages and skill levels are invited to get creative! Support the Friends of Shepherdstown Library by creating and donating an original work of art, or by offering an art lesson, performance, or custom artwork for our online auction. Multiple submissions are welcome!

How to participate in this fun winter project:

- Create an original work of art that is ready for display.
 - Medium of your choice: painting, drawing, photography, clay, multimedia, stained glass, fiber art, etc.
 - A limited number of primed 8x8 canvases are available free of charge at the library for paintings.
 - Prints of original art are welcome.
- OR Donate a gift certificate good for a custom work of art, art lesson, or performance.
 - Examples: 1 hour painting lesson, music lesson or performance, family photo shoot, pet portrait, personalized poem, dance lesson or performance, custom decorated cake, knitting lesson, writing critique, etc. All forms of art accepted!

Drop off your artwork or gift certificate and entry form at the Shepherdstown Public Library by March 3rd.

Library Hours: 9-6 M-F, 10-3 Sat. Your donation will be photographed and posted to our auction website, then displayed at the library.

- Auction dates: March 9-14. Art Show: March 10 at the Library
- Our BiddingOwl auction website will be accessible through the FOSL and Library webpages: foslwv.org and sheplibrary.org

Proceeds of the auction will support the Shepherdstown Public Library. Any donations without bids will be returned to the artist.

Please contact Jen Bean at FOSLauction@gmail.com if you have questions.
